I am a Citizens Advice Volunteer – that's my secret superpower

"The best thing about volunteering at Citizens Advice is being able to help people, who through bad luck, lack of knowledge or confidence issues, really need our help. It's an honour and a privilege to be given an opportunity to do that."

Citizens Advice Swindon Volunteer

Are you ready to be our community's superhero?

If you are a good listener, open-minded and non-judgmental, like meeting new people, have a desire to learn and help others and make the world a better place for one person at a time, then we have a role for you.

Full training provided.
