

The consultation period for the Wood Street Experimental Traffic Regulation Order expires on 7 February 2021 – The full details of the Wood Street TRO and the on-line response form can be found at – https://www.swindon.gov.uk/info/20135/traffic_management/657/find_out_about_traffic_regulation_orders_tros/6

Anyone who may have an interest in the amended parking, taxi and access restrictions in Wood Street.

After 7 February SBC will review all the comments received in order to decide whether to recommend that the arrangements are made permanent, that the arrangements are further amended or whether to revert to the previous arrangements.

Please use the on-line response form if at all possible. Responses from those who are in support of the experimental arrangements, are encouraged.
